

LEADERSHIP AND CONTROL

It is customary for us to look at John the Baptist as being the forerunner of Jesus Christ, preparing the way for the ministry of the King of Kings. Yet I doubt if we have ever really analysed the life and ministry of this key person in his own right. I am sure that you as a reader will agree with me that John was a leader in his own right but have you ever looked at his leadership in relationship to Jesus.

If you look at John 1:29 – 37 you will find that:

John was a successful preacher for we read that crowds followed him
