

Effectively Ministering to At-Risk Children and Youth

Pastor Johnny H. Moore, Cairo, GA

INTRODUCTION:

In a day when all eyes are on the big cities, the diverse cultures, and the growing population, America still has at-risk children and youth in the country—and believe it or not—even under the steeple.

I. The Problem

II. The Purpose

III. The Plan

IV. The Process

V. The Product

CONCLUSION:

God has a purpose for every child and every teenager. And they can begin to discover and fulfill that purpose even while still kids. It is the responsibility of every church to help these kids grow and develop into men and women of God. Let us rise to the challenge and effectively minister to every at-risk child, under the steeple and outside the walls.

- NOTES -