

City Vision: Recruiting and Training Teen Benevolence Foot Soldiers

Tom Madden
Youth Ministries Coordinator, Church of God

I. THE CALL

- A. Population and Demographic Shift
- B. Diversity of Religions
- C. Poverty and Need

II. THE COMMAND

- A. Jesus' Model—He went where the people were.
- B. The Great Commission includes our diverse neighbors.

III. THE CRY

- A. Of the City
- B. Of Teens Wanting to Fulfill Their Call
- C. Of God to Win the Lost

IV. THE CONCERN

- A. City Vision Strategy
 - 1. Selection of Focus Ministry Teams
 - 2. Networking
 - 3. Local Key Leader Involvement
- B. City Vision Goals
 - 1. Planting Youth-led Churches
 - 2. Assisting Existing Urban Churches
 - 3. City Service Projects

V. THE COMMISSION

- A. Ministry Opportunities
 - 1. Phase One
 - 2. Phase Two
 - 3. Phase Three
- B. 2002 Opportunities

VI. THE CHALLENGE

When the Church of God was being birthed, the Spirit of God brought joy. When they prayed, there was power. When they gave, there was self-sacrifice. When they embraced, there was covenant love. When they ministered, there were miracles. Then there was opposition, they gave their lives. And when they were gone, a new generation carried on the faith. They are here now. They are looking to us.